

RUGBY UNION STADIUMS - WALES

WALES NATIONAL

CAPACITY : 74,500

CONSTRUCTED : 1999

Wales National is used for regular International matches for the National rugby team's matches.
The Principality Stadium hosted the 2012 Summer Olympics, the 2007 and 1997 Rugby World Cup Finals.

PLAY STADIUM FLYBY

RUGBY UNION STADIUMS - WALES

CARDIFF

CAPACITY : 27,500

CONSTRUCTED : 2009

Cardiff is used for regular team rugby, by one of the best teams in the Celtic Pro 12 league; located in Cardiff. The Cardiff City Stadium regularly hosting football matches, in the English football league.

PLAY STADIUM FLYBY

RUGBY UNION STADIUMS - WALES

LLANELLI NORTH

CAPACITY : 14,870

CONSTRUCTED : 2008

Llanelli North is used by a top team in the Welsh Rugby Premier league, who have been one of the most successful teams. The Parc y Scarlets is also used for one of the top teams, in the Celtic Pro 12 League.

PLAY STADIUM FLYBY

RUGBY UNION STADIUMS - WALES

LLANELLI SOUTH

CAPACITY : 14,870

CONSTRUCTED : 2008

Llanelli South is used for regular team rugby, by one of the best teams in the Celtic Pro 12 league. The Parc y Scarlets hosts games in the Anglo-Welsh Cup and the European Rugby Champions Cup.

PLAY STADIUM FLYBY

RUGBY UNION STADIUMS - WALES

SWANSEA

CAPACITY : 20,827

CONSTRUCTED : 1912

Swansea is used for regular team rugby, by one of the best teams in the Celtic Pro 12 league; located in Swansea.
The Liberty Stadium also regularly hosts football games, in the English football league.

PLAY STADIUM FLYBY