

BELFRY BRABAZON

PAR: 72

YARDS: 7118

COURSE TYPE: PARKLAND

2002, 1993, 1989 and 1985 was the famous Ryder Cup venue. In 2008 hosted Quinn Direct British Masters; it's 3rd annual European Tour event

BELFRY PGA NATIONAL

PAR: 70

YARDS: 7053

COURSE TYPE: PARKLAND

Opened in 1977, and features extensive mounding and a number of water hazards. However, it has cunningly placed bunkers which are the courses main defence. A challenging and enjoyable test of golf.

BETCHWORTH PARK

PAR: 69

YARDS: 6285

COURSE TYPE: PARKLAND

Located south of London beneath the legendary Box Hill, is 18 holes of delightful golf. Founded in 1911 by the distinguished course architect Harry S. Colt.

BIRKDALE

PAR: 71

YARDS: 6817

COURSE TYPE: LINKS

One of its great charms is its tranquillity, as the course meanders through the dunes, many of the holes are hidden from one another. The links has hosted nine Open Championships and two Ryder Cups.

GEORGES

PAR: 70

YARDS: 6630

COURSE TYPE: LINKS

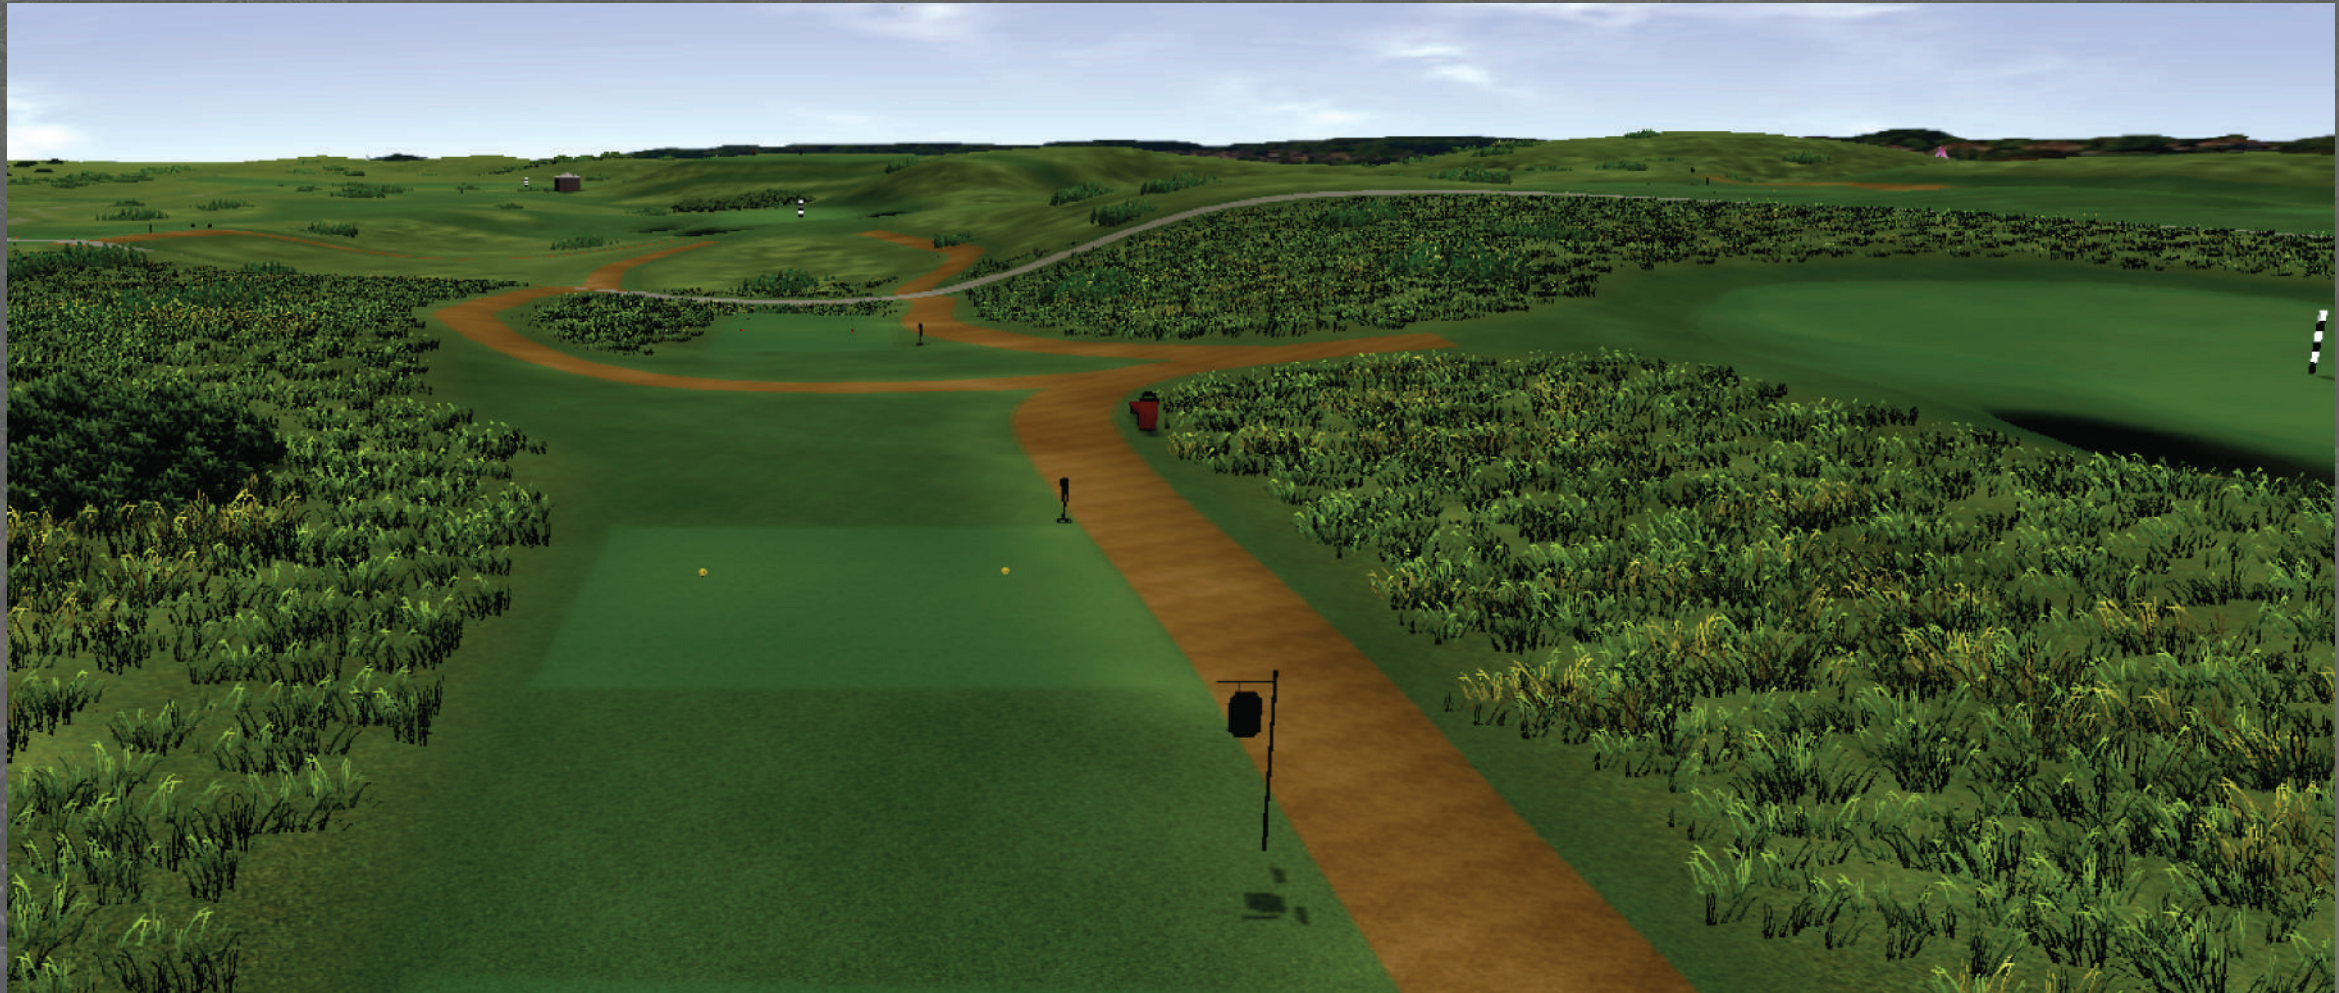

As a course, it is something of a fashion amongst all other links. That true golfing greats. Should consist of a series of knobbly humps and hollows. This links course in Southern England has held 14 open Championships.

LIVERPOOL

PAR: 72

YARDS: 7312

COURSE TYPE: LINKS

2014 Open Championship venue; hosted its 12th Open Championship. A typical links created by the railway companies in the 19th century, giving golfers a wonderful golf experience.

LIVERPOOL

PAR: 72

YARDS: 7170

COURSE TYPE: LINKS

A typical coastal links created by the railway companies in the 19th century. Giving golfers a wonderful golf experience, with the fairways cut into the sand dunes. This links has hosted eleven Open Championships.

LYTHAN

PAR: 70

YARDS: 7085

COURSE TYPE: LINKS

2012 Open venue, hosted its 11th Open Championship, has hosted 2 Ryder Cups in 1977 and 1961. As well as several Women's and Senior events, the course was redesigned by Harry Colt.

LYTHAN

PAR: 70

YARDS: 6882

COURSE TYPE: LINKS

A premier links course, located near Blackpool's seaside. This course has all the bounding fairways and quick greens associated with Open Championship courses.

ROYAL SOUTHPORT

PAR: 70

YARDS: 7200

COURSE TYPE: LINKS

2017 British Open venue, for its 10th occasion, has hosted 2 Ryder Cups in 1969 and 1965, designed by JH Taylor the course opened for play in 1894, many of the holes are hidden from one another.

STOKE PARK

PAR: 71

YARDS: 6851

COURSE TYPE: PARKLAND

As well as being a challenging and demanding course you will find it hard not to be stirred by the exquisite views and landscapes of the club's championship course known as Stoke Poges. Designed by Harry Colt.

SUNNINGDALE

PAR: 69

YARDS: 6626

COURSE TYPE: FOREST

Sunningdale, is set over 400 acres winding through the beautiful Medway Valley, in London. This stunning course was designed by the legendary Stanley Thompson, opened in 1933.

SUNNING OLD

PAR: 69

YARDS: 6628

COURSE TYPE: HEATH LAND

A championship course located in Berkshire which held many tournaments in the early 20th century. The course has been laid out on heath land, on a bed of sandy soil. It opened for play in 1901.

WALTON OLD

PAR: 72

YARDS: 7463

COURSE TYPE: HEATH LAND

A championship course located in Surrey, which has held many tournaments in the 20th century including one Ryder Cup and many European Tour events.

WENTWORTH EAST

PAR: 68

YARDS: 6201

COURSE TYPE: PARKLAND

1932 Curtis Cup Venue; as well as hosting the forerunner to the Ryder Cup in 1926 between the US and GB & I. Opened in 1924 the east is architecturally and aesthetically superior to the west course.

WENTWORTH WEST

PAR: 72

YARDS: 7320

COURSE TYPE: PARKLAND

2010 BMW Championship is hosting its 27th annual European Tour event. Hosted the HSBC Match play for some 45 years, until 2008. Held the Ryder Cup in 1953, this is without doubt the most famous course in England.

WENTWORTH WEST

PAR: 72

YARDS: 7320

COURSE TYPE: PARKLAND

2010 BMW Championship is hosting its 27th annual European Tour event. Hosted the HSBC Match play for some 45 years, until 2008. Held the Ryder Cup in 1953, this is without doubt the most famous course in England.