

FOOTBALL STADIUMS - FRANCE

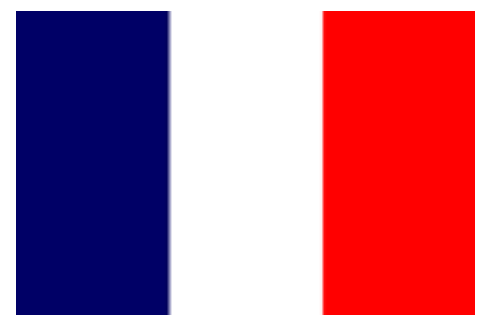

FRANCE NATIONAL

CAPACITY : 81,338

CONSTRUCTED : 1998

France National is used for regular International matches for the National football team.
The Stade de France hosted 9 games during the 1998 World Cup, the 2006 and 2000 European Cup Finals.

PLAY STADIUM FLYBY

FOOTBALL STADIUMS - FRANCE

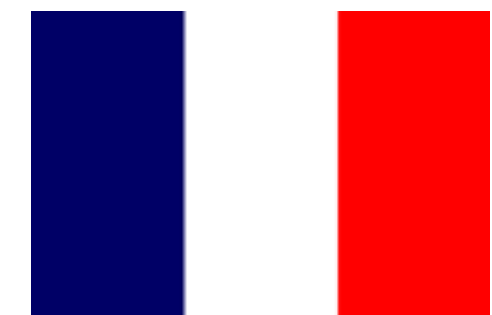

BORDEAUX

CAPACITY : 42,115

CONSTRUCTED : 2015

Bordeaux is used for regular team football in the French league. The Matmut Atlantique Stadium hosted 5 matches during the European 2016 Championship and hosted the 2014 Top 14 semi-finals in rugby union.

PLAY STADIUM FLYBY

FOOTBALL STADIUMS - FRANCE

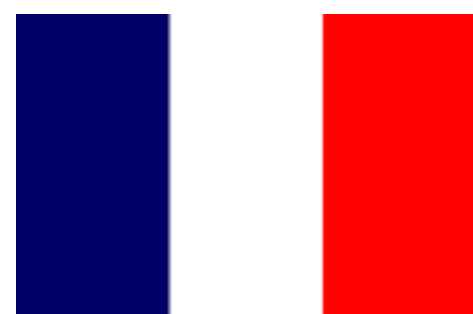

LENS

CAPACITY : 38,223

CONSTRUCTED : 1933

Lens is used for regular team football in the French league. The Stade Bollaert-Deleis hosted 6 games during the 1998 World Cup, hosted 4 Euro 2016 games and matches during the 2007 and 1999 Rugby World Cups.

PLAY STADIUM FLYBY

FOOTBALL STADIUMS - FRANCE

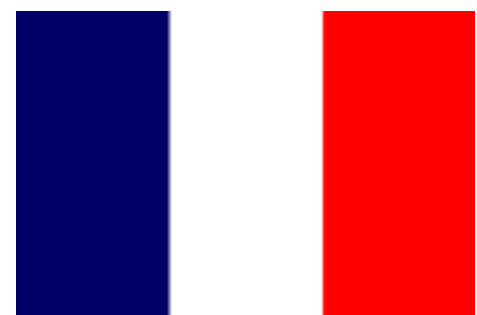

LILLE

CAPACITY : 50,186

CONSTRUCTED : 2012

Lille is used for regular team football in the French league and European club matches. The Stade Pierre-Mauroy hosted 6 matches during the 2016 Euro Championship, including a Quarter-Final.

PLAY STADIUM FLYBY

FOOTBALL STADIUMS - FRANCE

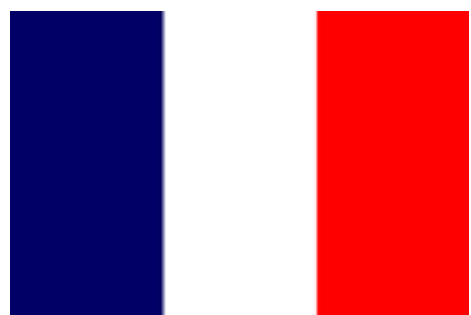

LYON OLD

CAPACITY : 40,500

CONSTRUCTED : 1914

Lyon was used for regular team football in the French league and European club matches.
The Stade de Gerland hosted 6 games during the 1998 World Cup and 2 games during the 1984 European Championships.

PLAY STADIUM FLYBY

FOOTBALL STADIUMS - FRANCE

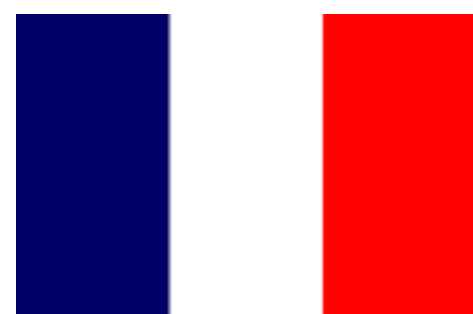

LYON

CAPACITY : 59,500

CONSTRUCTED : 2016

Lyon is used for regular team football in the French league and European club matches.
The Parc Olympique Lyonnais hosted 6 games during the 2016 Euros and will host the 2018 Euro Cup Final.

PLAY STADIUM FLYBY

FOOTBALL STADIUMS - FRANCE

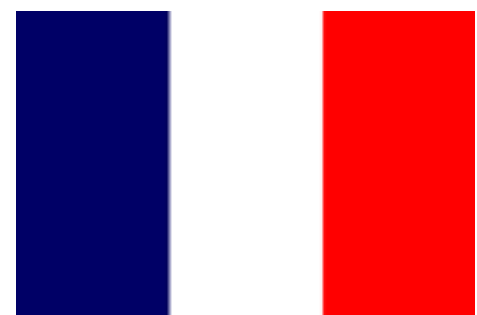

MARSEILLE

CAPACITY : 67,000

CONSTRUCTED : 1937

Marseille is used for regular team football in the French league and European matches.
The Stade Velodrome hosted 7 games during the 1998 World Cup, 2 games at 1938 World Cup and 6 games during 2016 Euros.

PLAY STADIUM FLYBY

FOOTBALL STADIUMS - FRANCE

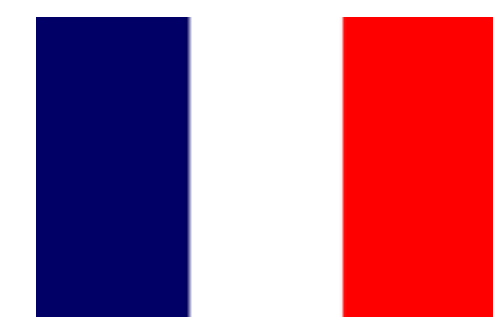

MONACO

CAPACITY : 18,523

CONSTRUCTED : 1939

Monaco is used for regular team football in the French league and the Monaco National football team.
The Stade Louis II has hosted the World athletics final as well as the 2012 and 1998 Super Cup Finals.

PLAY STADIUM FLYBY

FOOTBALL STADIUMS - FRANCE

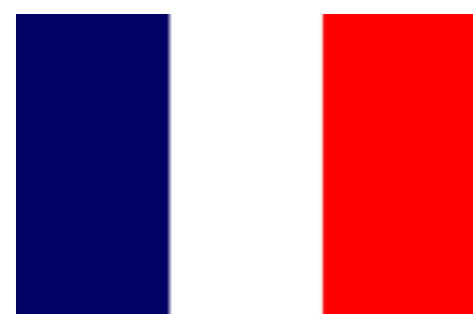

NICE

CAPACITY : 35,624

CONSTRUCTED : 2013

Nice is used for regular team football in the French league and one of the top French Rugby teams.
The Allianz Riviera often referred to Stade de Nice, hosted 4 games during the 2016 European Championships.

PLAY STADIUM FLYBY

FOOTBALL STADIUMS - FRANCE

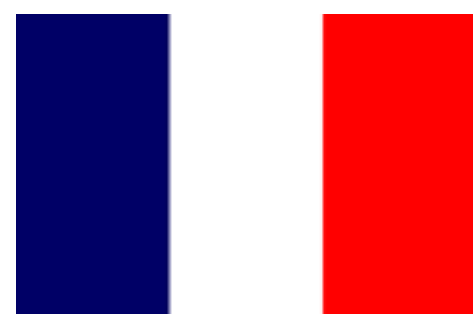

PARIS

CAPACITY : 48,583

CONSTRUCTED : 1972

Paris is used for regular team football in the French league and for European club matches.
Hosted 5 European Cup Finals in 2016, 1998, 1995, 1981 and 1975, the 1998 World Cup, plus the 2007 Rugby World Cup.

PLAY STADIUM FLYBY

FOOTBALL STADIUMS - FRANCE

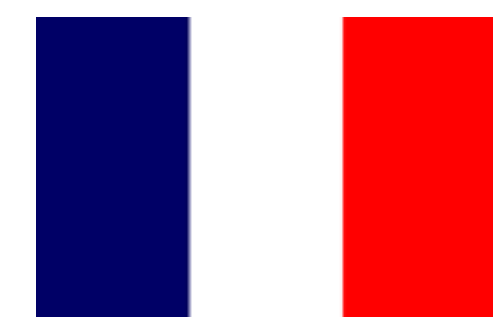

SAINT-ÉTIENNE

CAPACITY : 42,000

CONSTRUCTED : 2014

Saint-Étienne is used for regular team football in the French league, is located in Saint-Étienne.
The Stade Geoffroy-Guichard hosted 4 matches, during the 2016 UEFA European Championship.

PLAY STADIUM FLYBY

FOOTBALL STADIUMS - FRANCE

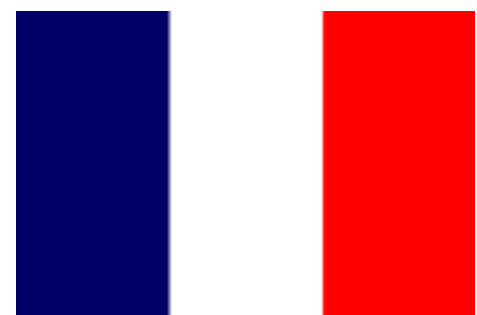

SAINT-ÉTIENNE OLD

CAPACITY : 47,000

CONSTRUCTED : 1931

Saint-Étienne Old was used for regular team football in the French league, is located in Saint-Étienne.
The Stade Geoffroy-Guichard hosted 2 games during 1984 Euros and 6 games during 1998 World Cup.

PLAY STADIUM FLYBY

FOOTBALL STADIUMS - FRANCE

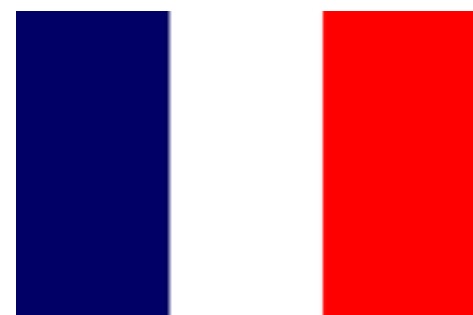

TOULOUSE

CAPACITY : 36,369

CONSTRUCTED : 1937

Toulouse is used for regular team football in the French league. The Stadium Municipal hosted 6 games during the 1998 World Cup, 2 games during the 1938 World Cup and 4 games during the 2016 European Championship.

PLAY STADIUM FLYBY