

ICE HOCKEY STADIUMS - CANADA

CALGARY

CAPACITY : 19,289

CONSTRUCTED : 1983

Calgary is used for Ice Hockey matches, by one of the top teams in the league. The Scotiabank Saddledome hosted ice hockey at the 1988 Winter Olympics and is home to another top NHL team.

PLAY STADIUM FLYBY

ICE HOCKEY STADIUMS - CANADA

EDMONTON

CAPACITY : 16,859

CONSTRUCTED : 1974

Edmonton is used for Ice Hockey matches, by one of the top teams in the league. The Rexall Place Arena hosted the 2012 and 1995 World Junior Ice Hockey Championships, is the third oldest NHL arena.

PLAY STADIUM FLYBY

ICE HOCKEY STADIUMS - CANADA

MONTREAL

CAPACITY : 21,273

CONSTRUCTED : 1974

Montreal is used for Ice Hockey matches, by one of the top teams in the league. The Bell Centre hosted the 2009 NHL All-Star Game, since opening it usually has the highest Canadian attendances.

PLAY STADIUM FLYBY

ICE HOCKEY STADIUMS - CANADA

OTTAWA

CAPACITY : 20,500

CONSTRUCTED : 1996

Ottawa is used for Ice Hockey matches, by one of the top teams in the league. The Canadian Tire Centre is also home to one the top teams in the National Basketball association.

PLAY STADIUM FLYBY

ICE HOCKEY STADIUMS - CANADA

TORONTO

CAPACITY : 18,819

CONSTRUCTED : 1999

Toronto is used for Ice Hockey matches, by one of the top teams in the league, who have won 13 Stanley Cups. The Air Canada Centre also hosts basketball, lacrosse and another ice hockey team.

PLAY STADIUM FLYBY

ICE HOCKEY STADIUMS - CANADA

VANCOUVER

CAPACITY : 18,910

CONSTRUCTED : 1995

Vancouver is used for Ice Hockey matches, by one of the top teams in the league. The Rogers Arena previous home to the Vancouver Grizzlies of the NBA, it also hosted the 2010 Winter Olympics.

PLAY STADIUM FLYBY

ICE HOCKEY STADIUMS - CANADA

WINNIPEG

CAPACITY : 15,004

CONSTRUCTED : 2004

Winnipeg is used for Ice Hockey matches, by one of the top teams in the League. The MTS Centre previously served as the home of the American Hockey League’s Manitoba Moose until 2011.

PLAY STADIUM FLYBY